

Our Provider: Jennifer Taylor | MSN, APRN, FNP-C

Jennifer has worked in healthcare for 11 years. Much of her experience has been in family practice and critical care. She enjoys caring for patients of all ages and backgrounds. Jennifer has a passion for preventative care and wellness. She likes to educate patients on all their options and collaborate on healthcare decisions.

Jennifer has worked in many roles on her way to becoming a nurse practitioner, starting as a medical assistant, then becoming a registered nurse and finally her current role as an ANCC Board Certified Family Nurse Practitioner. She originally graduated from Northern Oklahoma College of Nursing in 2009. After some years working as a registered nurse, Jennifer went on to graduate school at Graceland University where she obtained her Master of Science in Nursing and earned her Family Nurse practitioner certification in 2019. Her vast experience in healthcare and in life has made her relatable and down to earth.
